

SUMMER CAMPS IN SOTO DE AGUES

Alba Hostel organizes language immersion camps in their facilities. The hostel is located in the Redes Natural Park, Biosphere Reserve in Sobrescobio.

It consists of thirty seats, divided into four rooms with 8 and 6 beds and a bathroom for each room. It also has a room for monitors two or three seats. Its facilities include a dining room, kitchen and terrace.

The hostel is located in a cobbled square, with little traffic, ideal for the enjoyment of children. Externally and just two minutes walk from the hostel it has a social center, equipped with classrooms and multipurpose rooms, which use by participants to the camp is made.

The camps have specialized in both of the support, and playful, with native practices for language immersion and qualified instructors for activities, also in English teachers staff. We attach timetables and schedules camps. These are not rigid and can be modified depending on the weather or other circumstances.

The support consists of breakfast, lunch, tea and dinner prepared in a home in our kitchen. In any case participants must pick up or washing dishes or any other task than their own camp.

The price of the camp for a two week stay (entrance Monday lunch, departure on Sunday of the following week after breakfast) with full board, including the use of social center and everything necessary for the implementation of activities is € 640.00 per person. The stay does not include sheets or towels. Only blankets and mattress covers and pillow, so students must bring a sleeping bag.

The hostel organizes complementary activities, which are specified in the attached table. (Excursions, gynkhanas, visits to museums, etc.). All details and final planning of the camp are detailed in the tables attached.

For the time of registration a first pre-registration ending on March 30 opened, to see if there is a sufficient number of students for the activity, and other registration in which students will have to make a reservation 10% enrollment, ending on April 18 The dates available right now is the fortnight between 4 and 17 July.

I hoping to reach an agreement beneficial to both parties, I invite you to meet in person our facilities and I send a greeting:
