

Crime Writers Seminar

Held at the IPA Study Centre in Schloss Gimborn

17th to 21st September 2018

There are still spaces available on this week long course, held in a beautiful castle location, just outside Cologne in Germany. But you will have to act fast!

Chaired by the IPA's UK Vice President, Sean Hannigan, a packed programme of established crime and fiction writers who will cover crime, fiction and children's writing

Then, they turn their attention to your dreams of becoming a writer, taking you through a series of workshops, developing your own ideas.

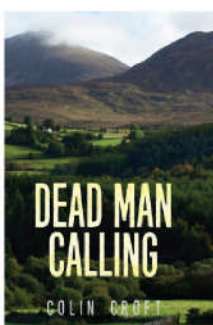

The course is also open to non-members of the IPA

The presenters are:

Neil
Hallam

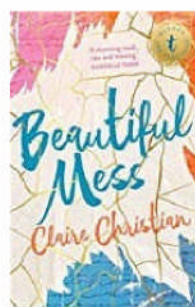

Colin
McLean

Peter Pleydell

Claire
Christain

Mark
Thompson

Gerard
Brennan

Cost for IPA members is € 350 and for non IPA members - €450
Your first year's IPA membership is free, so excellent value to join.
