Dear IPA friends,

The IPA's Socio-Cultural Commission is organising the 2nd International Children's Painting Competition. All children or grandchildren of our members, aged 6-12 years (born 1-1-2009 to 31-12-2015) are eligible to participate, provided that one of the two parents or grandparents, or guardians consents to both participating in the competition, as well as exhibiting projects and granting rights to the IEB for use in the construction of calendars, etc. Children and grandchildren of IEB members and SCC members are excluded from the competition.

Each child involved must paint on A4 size paper. The following can be used: pencil, water colours, tempera, oil pastel, dry pastel and inks. Projects must be accompanied by a completed entry form including the full name of the contestant (name, surname), age, parent's email, and a contact phone number. Upon submission of the project, the parents shall automatically accept all the above conditions set by the Commission.

The duration of the competition is from Thursday, 1st July 2021 to Thursday, 30th September 2021. Entries should be submitted within the time limits of the competition.

Each contestant will be entitled to only two (2) entries and the same person cannot be a winner more than once.

The topics of the competition are:

1. Police at work
2. Police and animals
3. Children of the world

The competition will feature 3 winners from each category and one overall winner. The gifts will be:

- For the overall winner: a wooden set of oil colours
- For the first winner of each category: a watercolour painting set
- For the second and third winners of each category: a painting block

All children will receive a commemorative Certificate of Participation.

The works will be judged by the Artists Association of Dubrovnik. The results of the competition will be announced on the last working day of the IPA IEC 2021.

Each participant is solely responsible for the complete and correct delivery of their information. Incomplete or incorrect completion of the participant's details entitles the SCC to exclude him/ her from the contest. Any of the participants and / or the winner, at any stage, may be excluded if they do not meet the conditions for entry.

The gift is personal and shall not be exchanged or requested to be replaced or redeemed at any price.

The contestants provide their consent and authorisation to the IEB or SCC to publish the contest and / or its results through radio, television, as well as through print and electronic media and / or the internet. The IEB reserves the right to use and publish for any purpose the list of winners, photos, films, and videos and may use any news item related to this competition for promotion purposes, and participation in the program automatically provides consensus and assignment of the necessary rights (copyright, exploitation) for this purpose without any other claim against the IEB and SCC.

Participation in the contest implies the unconditional acceptance of the terms of the competition and entails the consequent waiver of any claim against the IPA. The organiser's responsibility is solely limited to the availability of planned gifts. Entries with content that infringes on public outrage and good morals or are subject to ambiguity or other technical defects will not be accepted.

Entries that contain content that is offensive to the honour and dignity of any public or administrative or ecclesiastical authority or any third party, content that is abusive, incendiary, racist, or object to the provisions hereof, or in any other way deemed inappropriate by the IEB or SCC shall not make them liable for any criminal or civil liability to any winner or third party, for any accident that may occur and / or damage and / or for any physical or other damage that may be caused to them directly or indirectly in connection with the gift.
